LAST YEAR'S STARS ARE NOT BACK THIS SEASON

Team Already Has Started Training, and Hard Schedule is Being Prepared For,

Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, September 9 Virginia's football squad to-day completed its first full week of practice. An even dozen candidates reported to captain Harold A. Sparr on Monday, and this afternoon there were enough men on the field to form two elevens, flot weather has interfered somewhat with the daily drill, which did not start until 4 o'clock each afternoon, but slight progress has been made toward getting the candidates in condition. Early in the week "Pop" Lannigan arrived from his home in Maine, where he usually spends his vacations, and at once looked after the physical condition of his wards. The genial trainer has not enjoyed the best of health this summer, but has entered upon his task with earnestness. He was warmly welcomed by the members of the squad.

was warmly welcomed by the members of the squad.

Head Coach Evans was deeply characterined when he reached the university last Sunday and found out that Thurban and the Anderson brothers— deepge and Ed—had decided not to releater college. The return of these two would have boosted prospects no little. Evans is undaunted, however, and has gene about his task of building up a team with commendable vigor and enthusiasm. Before the end of another week passes he expects to have twenty-live players in uniform, and by the time college opens things should be humming on Lambeth Fleid, in preparation for the heaviest and hardest schedule ever arranged for a Virginia football team.

LYNCHBURG, VA., September 9.—
Mayor Royston Jester, who is a great admirer of basebail, announced here to-day that it is his intention shortly to inaugurate a movement in the hope of securing professional hasebail for Lynchburg for the 1917 season. The Mayor's preference is to line Ronnoke and Danville up with Lynchburg for an alignment with three North Carolina towns, in case those towns are not identified with the present Carolina towns, in case those towns are not identified with the present Carolina League next season. Failing in this, a smaller and more compact circuit will be suggested to be built around Lynchburg. Danville and Ronnoke, former Virginia League towns.

Jack Brown and Tom Coleman will undoubtedly be severely felt, but this only means that the new material will be thoroughly sifted, and perhaps a new star may be uncovered.

NEWPORT NEWS DEFEATS PORTSMOUTH IN DOUBLE

NEWPORT NEWS, September 9.—
The Virginia League season closed here this afternoon with a double victory for Newport News over Portsmouth. The scores were 2 to 1 and 2 to 9. The dual victory to-day gives the Builders three wins and one tie in the four games. Ray was unsteady in the first, but saved himself by tightening in the pinches. His two successive wild throws were responsible for the Portsmouth run. A passf two hits, two stolen bases and an error accounted for the local runs.

Hamilton was master in the second and until the seventh, but eighteen men had faced him. In that round he filled the bases on two passes and an error, but pitched himself out.

PETERSBURG DEFEATS CREWE

PETERSBURG, September 9.—Petersburg, Virginia Lengue team, had to put up a great game to-day to defeat the fast Crewe team, the final score being 4 to 3. Up to the seventh inning Crewe had the locals, 3 to 2, but two costly errors gave the locals three runs and the game. Belcher, for Crewe, twirled a great game, and deserved a win. Williams's fielding for Crewe was exceptionally good.

ROTARIANS ARE BOOSTING

Wednesday, September 12, will be "Billy Smith" Day at the local ball grounds, and it is desired and sincerely hoped that the banner crowd of the season will greet "the boys" on that auspicious occasion.

The Richmond ball team is one of Richmond's best indirect advertisements, and the management, backed by the Advertisers' Club and the Rotary Club, asks that every busine house and factory will let their en ployees "off" to attend the game.

If those who can see their way cle to do so, will close up in the after noon, all the better.

Let's give our baseballists a roy reception and show 'em we apprecia the good work they are doing for to old town.—Rotary Tabasco.
